DUNDEE CORPORATION MAKES KEY STRATEGIC HIRE AS IT BUILDS OUT ITS WEALTH MANAGEMENT DIVISION

ADAM DONSKY, CFA JOINS AS CHIEF INVESTMENT OFFICER

Toronto, December 1, 2015 - Dundee Corporation (TSX: DC.A) announces the appointment of Adam Donsky, CFA to the new position of Chief Investment Officer at Goodman & Company, Investment Counsel Inc., effective January 4, 2016. Goodman & Company, Investment Counsel is central to Dundee’s wealth management strategy and is the investment counsel and portfolio management (ICPM) platform that will cater to high-net-worth and ultra-high-net-worth markets.

“Creating a Chief Investment Officer position within the group and bringing on Adam Donsky is a significant milestone in implementing our wealth management strategy. I am extremely pleased to welcome Adam back to Dundee,” said David Goodman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Dundee Corporation.

“I look forward to rejoining Dundee, and being part of building a new wealth management organization. I am thrilled at the thought of joining a truly unique organization with an entrepreneurial culture I have rarely seen in other organizations,” added Adam Donsky, newly appointed Chief Investment Officer at Goodman & Company, Investment Counsel.

Adam Donsky is a top-level portfolio manager with deep insight in global equities. A CFA charterholder, Adam was previously Vice-President and lead Portfolio Manager at 1832 Asset Management a wholly-owned division of the Bank of Nova Scotia. In his role as lead Portfolio Manager, he provided investment counsel to the firm’s high net worth client group. At 1832 Asset Management L.P., Adam was also lead Portfolio Manager of the family of Dynamic Blue Chip Funds. In total, Adam was responsible for over $6 billion of assets under management.

Adam Donsky originally joined the Dynamic Funds in 2004, when it was a division of Goodman & Company. He will officially take on his new role as Chief Investment Officer at Goodman & Company, Investment Counsel on January 4, 2016.
