

DUNDEE CORPORATION APPOINTS BRAD J. HENDERSON AS CEO OF SOTHEBY'S INTERNATIONAL REALTY OF CANADA

TORONTO, ONTARIO -- (02/22/2016) – Dundee Corporation ("Dundee") (TSX:DC.A) is pleased to announce the appointment of Brad J. Henderson to the position of President & Chief Executive Officer of Sotheby's International Realty Canada, effective immediately. Sotheby's International Realty Canada is a key component of Dundee's wealth management strategy catering to the high-net-worth and ultra-high-net-worth markets.

"Adding Brad Henderson to the team is a significant step in enhancing our investment in Sotheby's International Realty Canada and in implementing our wealth management strategy. I am extremely pleased to welcome Brad to the Dundee family," said David Goodman, President and Chief Executive Officer of Dundee Corporation.

"I am excited to join Sotheby's International Realty Canada. Sotheby's is one of the best known brands in the world and has attracted top real estate advisors, as well as buyers and sellers of some of Canada's most prestigious properties," said Mr. Henderson. "I am equally delighted to be part of Dundee Corporation which is a truly unique entrepreneurial company with a great culture."

Mr. Henderson is a senior executive leader with diverse experience and capabilities. Most recently he was Senior Managing Regional Director for CBRE in Canada and the North Central United States where he oversaw a team of more than 1,200 people. Previously, he held senior executive roles at Colliers International and Royal LePage. He has also enjoyed success in the telecom and technology sectors, having held executive roles at TELUS and Gibraltar Solutions. Mr. Henderson serves as a volunteer Co-Chair of Civic Action's Race to Reduce and a long time serving committee leader and member of the Toronto Regional Board of Trade.
